Notes to Financial Statements

Three Months Ended July 31, 2012 and 2011

Note 1 - Company Organization and Description

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments which are necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and results of operations for the periods presented. The unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all the information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America. These condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes included in the Company's April 30, 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The results of operations for the three months ended July 31, 2012 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for the full year.

Biosynergy, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois on February 9, 1976. It is primarily engaged in the development and marketing of medical, consumer and industrial thermometric and thermographic products that utilize cholesteric liquid crystals. The Company's primary product, the HemoTemp II Blood Monitoring Device, accounted for approximately 90.97% of the sales during the quarter ending July 31, 2012. The products are sold to hospitals, clinical end-users, laboratories and product dealers located throughout the United States.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash

The Company maintains all of its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. No losses have been experienced on such accounts.

Receivables

Receivables are carried at original invoice less estimates made for doubtful receivables. Management determines the allowances for doubtful accounts by reviewing and identifying troubled accounts on a periodic basis and by using historical experience applied to an aging of accounts. A receivable is considered to be past due if any portion of the receivable balance is outstanding for more than 30 days. Receivables are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of receivables previously written off are recorded when received.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market using the FIFO (first-in, first-out) method.

Depreciation and Amortization

Equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred; renewals and betterments which significantly extend the useful lives of existing equipment are capitalized. Significant leasehold improvements are capitalized and amortized over the term of the lease; equipment is depreciated over three to ten years.

Prepaid Expenses

Certain expenses, primarily insurance and income taxes, have been prepaid and will be used within one year.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes net sales revenue upon the shipment of product to customers.

Research and Development and Patents

Research and development expenditures are charged to operations as incurred. The costs of obtaining patents, primarily legal fees, are capitalized and once obtained, amortized over the life of the respective patent on the straight-line method.

Patents relate to products that have been developed and are being marketed by the Company.

Patents pending relate to products under development. The Company is developing certain compounds intended for use as bacteria growth retardant agents for use in food and other products.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Per Common Share

Income per common share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. When dilutive, stock options are included as share equivalents using the treasury stock method in the calculation of diluted earnings per share. The Company has no outstanding options or other rights to acquire its unissued common shares.

Comprehensive Income

Components of comprehensive income include amounts that are included in the comprehensive income but are excluded from net income. There were no elements of comprehensive income.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due and deferred taxes related primarily to differences in the methods of accounting for patents, inventories, certain accrued expenses and bad debt expenses for financial and income tax reporting purposes. The deferred income taxes represent the future tax consequences of those differences, which will be taxable in the future.

The Company files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and with the state of Illinois. Various tax years remain open to examinations although there are currently no ongoing tax examinations. Management's policy is to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

The provision for income taxes consists of the following components as of July 31:

	2012	2011
Current
Federal	$5,975	$ 9,819
State	2,277	3,317
Provision for Income Taxes	$8,252	$13,136

The differences between the U.S. federal statutory tax rate and the Company's effective tax rate are as follows:

	Period ended July 31,
	2012	2011
U.S. federal statutory tax rate	34.0%	34.0%
State income tax expense, net of Federal tax benefit	5.0	5.0
Effect of graduated federal tax rates	(5.3)	(9.3)
Effective Tax Rate	33.7%	29.7%

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-05, "Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Presentation of Comprehensive Income", which is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2011. This guidance eliminates the option to present the components of other comprehensive income as part of the statement of changes in stockholders' equity. In addition, items of other comprehensive income that are reclassified to profit or loss are required to be presented separately on the face of the financial statements. This guidance is intended to increase the prominence of other comprehensive income in financial statements by requiring that such amounts be presented either in single continuous statement of income or separately in consecutive statements of income and comprehensive income. The Company's adoption of ASU 2011-05 did not have a material impact on its financial condition or results of operations.

The FASB issues ASUs to amend the authoritative literature in Accounting Standards Certification (ASC). There have been a number of ASUs to date that amend the original text of ASCs. Except for the ASUs listed above, those issued to date either (i) provide supplemental guidance, (ii) are technical corrections, (iii) are not applicable to the Company or (iv) are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company.

Note 3 – Inventories

Biosynergy, Inc.

Note 4 – Common Stock

The Company's common stock is traded in the over-the-counter market. However, there is no established public trading market due to limited and sporadic trades. The Company's common stock is not listed on a recognized market or stock exchange.

Note 5 - Related Party Transactions

The Company and its affiliates are related through common stock ownership as follows as of July 31, 2012:

(1) As of April 21, 2010, a number of shares of common stock of the Company were escheated to the State of Illinois as a result of incorrect shareholder addresses maintained by the Company's transfer agent. These shares were sold at auction by the State of Illinois on January 13, 2011. The escheated stock includes shares previously owned by FKSI (12,676 escheated shares), Lauane C. Addis (9,000 escheated shares) and Laurence C. Mead (1,000 escheated shares). The percentage ownership indicated in the table reflects the escheatment of such shares.

As of July 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, $19,699 was due from F.K. Suzuki International, Inc. (FKSI). These balances result from an allocation of common expenses charged to FKSI prior to April 30, 2006 offset by advances received from time to time. No interest income is received or accrued by the Company. The financial condition of FKSI is such that it will unlikely be able to repay the Company during the next year without liquidating a portion of its assets, including a portion of its ownership in the Company. As a result, the receivable balance has been reclassified as a contra equity account since April 30, 2006.

Note 6 - Major Customers

Shipments to one customer amounted to 33.47% of sales during the first three months of Fiscal 2013 compared to 30.08% during the three month period ending July 31, 2011. As of July 31, 2012, there were outstanding accounts receivable from this customer of $72,790 compared to $62,355 at July 31, 2011. Shipments to another customer amounted to 28.75% of sales during the first three months of Fiscal 2013 and 28.56% of sales during the first three months of Fiscal 2012. As of July 31, 2012, there were outstanding accounts receivable from this customer of approximately $41,055 compared to $37,440 at July 31, 2011.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Net Sales/Revenues

For the three month period ending July 31, 2012 ("1st Quarter"), the net sales decreased .62%, or $1,924, as compared to net sales for the comparative quarter ending in 2011. This decrease in sales was primarily the result of a decrease in TempTrend^R, HemoTemp^R II and HemoTemp^R sales offset by an increase in HemoTemp^R Activator sales during the 1st Quarter. As of July 31, 2012, the Company had back orders of $1,300 for its HemoTemp^R Activators.

In addition to the above, during the 1st Quarter the Company had $749 of other miscellaneous revenues primarily from leasing a portion of its storage space to a third party and interest income of $269.

Costs and Expenses

General

The operating expenses of the Company during the 1st Quarter increased overall by 8.58%, or $15,481, as compared to the 1st Quarter in 2011, primarily due to an increase in salaries, employee benefits and legal expenses. See "General and Administrative Expenses" below.

Cost of Sales

The cost of sales during the 1st Quarter increased by $2,357 as compared to these expenses during the same quarter ending in 2011. This increase was due primarily to increased salaries and employee benefits. As a percentage of sales, the cost of sales were 28.69% during the 1st Quarter and 27.76% for the comparative quarter ending in 2011. Subject to unanticipated increases in raw materials or extraordinary occurrences, it is not anticipated that the cost of sales as a percentage of sales will materially change in the near future.

Research and Development Expenses

Research and Development costs increased $4,946, or 21.65%, as compared to the same quarter in 2011. This increase was primarily due to increase in salaries, employee benefits, lab supplies and testing of raw materials. The Company is continuing to investigate certain compounds for use in food and other products as antibacterial agents and research intended to improve and expand the Company's current product line. The Company does not have sufficient information to determine the extent to which the Company will be required to allocate its resources to the continued development of these products.

Marketing Expenses

Marketing expenses for the 1st Quarter increased by $8,607 or 22.07%, as compared to the quarter ending July 31, 2011. The Company experienced increased salaries and employee benefits during the 1st Quarter accounting for the overall increase in marketing expenses.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative costs increased by $1,928, or 1.62%, as compared to the 1st Quarter ending in 2011. This increase was primarily the result of an increase in legal expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business. Except for unforeseen expenses, increases to employee compensation associated with the Company's 401(k) plan and bonus plan, and normal increases in employee compensation, it is unlikely general and administrative expenses will materially change during Fiscal 2013.

Net Income

The Company realized net income of $16,235 during the 1st Quarter as compared to a net income of $31,092 for the comparative quarter of the prior year. The decrease in net income was primarily a result of increased operating expenses and lower sales.

Assets/Liabilities

General

Since April 30, 2012 the Company's assets have decreased by $7,744 and liabilities have decreased by $23,979. The decrease in assets (primarily cash and inventories) and the decrease in liabilities (primarily accrued compensation) is primarily a result of the Company's use of cash to pay year-end bonuses and payroll taxes.

Related Party Transactions

The Company was owed $19,699 by F.K. Suzuki International, Inc. ("FKSI"), an affiliate, at July 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012. This account primarily represents common expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business which were previously charged by the Company to FKSI for reimbursement. No interest is received or accrued by the Company. Collectability of the amounts due from FKSI cannot be assured without the liquidation of all or a portion of its assets, including a portion of its common stock of the Company. As a result, the amount owed by FKSI to the Company has been reclassified as a reduction of FKSI's capital in the Company. See "Financial Statements."

A board member provides a variety of legal service to the Company in his capacity as a partner in a law firm. Fees for such legal services were approximately $13,502 and $9,598 at July 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Current Assets/Liabilities Ratio

The ratio of current assets to current liabilities, 20.21 to 1, has increased compared to 14.09 to 1 at April 30, 2012, primarily due to a higher percentage decrease in current liabilities than the percentage decrease in current assets. This increase is not indicative of a material change in the financial condition of the Company, but rather a normal fluctuation due to the timing of payment of vendors. In order to maintain or improve the Company's asset/liabilities ratio, the Company's operations must remain profitable.

The decrease in liabilities was due primarily to a decrease in accrued compensation and payroll taxes related to year-end bonuses paid during the 1st Quarter.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the 1st Quarter, the Company experienced an increase in working capital of $2,002. This was primarily due to a decrease in current liabilities.

The Company has attempted to conserve working capital whenever possible. To this end, the Company attempts to keep inventory at minimum levels. The Company believes that it will be able to maintain adequate inventory to supply its customers on a timely basis by careful planning and forecasting demand for its products. However, the Company is nevertheless required to carry a minimum amount of inventory to meet the delivery requirements of customers and thus, inventory represents a substantial portion of the Company's current assets.

The Company presently grants payment terms to customers and dealers of 30 days. Although the Company experiences varying collection periods of its accounts receivable, the Company believes that uncollectable accounts receivable will not have a significant effect on future liquidity.

Cash provided by operating activities was $11,889 during the three month period ending July 31, 2012. Except for operating capital and limited equipment purchases and patent expenses, management is not aware of any other material capital requirements or material contingencies for which it must provide. There were no cash flows from financing activities during the three month period ending July 31, 2012.

As of July 31, 2012, the Company had $1,044,314 of current assets available. Of this amount, $25,819 was prepaid expenses, $71,880 was inventory, $164,200 was net trade receivables and $782,415 was cash. The Company's available cash and cash flow are considered adequate to fund the short-term capital needs of the Company. However, to meet the long-term operating capital needs of the Company, the Company must remain profitable. The Company does not have a working line of credit, and does not anticipate obtaining a working line of credit in the near future. Thus there is a risk additional financing may be necessary to fund long-term capital needs of the Company, although there is no such currently known long-term capital needs other than operations.

Effects of Inflation. With the exception of raw material and labor costs increasing with inflation, inflation has not had a material effect on the Company's revenues and income from continuing operations in the past three years. Inflation is not expected to have a material effect in the foreseeable future.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates. On December 12, 2001, the SEC issued FR-60 "Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies." FR-60 is an intermediate step to alert companies to the need for greater investor awareness of the sensitivity of financial statements to the methods, assumptions, and estimates underlying their preparation, including the judgments and uncertainties affecting the application of those policies and the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions.

The Company's significant accounting policies are disclosed in Note 2 to the Financial Statements for the 1st Quarter. See "Financial Statements." Except as noted below, the impact on the Company's financial position or results of operation would not have been materially different had the Company reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. The policies which may have materially affected the financial position and results of operations of the Company if such information had been reported under different circumstances or assumptions are:

Allowance for Bad Debts. The Company periodically performs credit evaluations of its customers and generally does not require collateral to support amounts due from the sale of its products. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts based on its best estimate of accounts receivable.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report may contain statements which, to the extent they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Reform Act"). Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements for reasons including, but not limited to, changes to and developments in the legislative and regulatory environments effecting the Company's business, the impact of competitive products and services, changes in the medical and laboratory industries caused by various factors, risks inherent in marketing new products, as well as other factors as set forth in this report. Thus, such forward-looking statements should not be relied upon to indicate the actual results which might be obtained by the Company. No representation or warranty of any kind is given with respect to the accuracy of such forward-looking information. The forward-looking information has been prepared by the management of the Company and has not been reviewed or compiled by independent public accountants.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices, such as interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and commodity prices. The Company's primary exposure to market risk is the interest rate risk associated with its short term money market investments. The Company does not have any financial instruments held for trading or other speculative purposes and does not invest in derivative financial instruments, interest rate swaps or other investments that alter interest rate exposure. The Company does not have any credit facilities with variable interest rates. Thus, the Company's operations are not exposed to financial risk that will have a material impact on its financial position and results of operation.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company has established and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) which are controls and other procedures of the Company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Accounting Officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Accounting Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Accounting Officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the Company's Fiscal Quarter ending July 31, 2012 that have materially affected or are likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
