Notes to Financial Statements

Six Months Ended October 31, 2014 and 2013

Note 1 - Company Organization and Description

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments which are necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and results of operations for the periods presented. The unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all the information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes included in the Company's April 30, 2014 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The results of operations for the six months ended October 31, 2014 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for the full year.

Biosynergy, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois on February 9, 1976. It is primarily engaged in the development and marketing of medical, consumer and industrial thermometric and thermographic products that utilize cholesteric liquid crystals. The Company's primary product, the HemoTemp II Blood Monitoring Device, accounted for approximately 88.9% of the sales during the quarter ending October 31, 2014 and 89.8% during the six month period ending October 31, 2014. The products are sold to hospitals, clinical end-users, laboratories and product dealers located throughout the United States.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash

The Company maintains all of its cash in various bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. No losses have been experienced on such accounts.

Receivables

Receivables are carried at original invoice less estimates made for doubtful receivables. Management determines the allowances for doubtful accounts by reviewing and identifying troubled accounts on a periodic basis and by using historical experience applied to an aging of accounts. A receivable is considered to be past due if any portion of the receivable balance is outstanding for more than 30 days. Receivables are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of receivables previously written off are recorded when received.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market using the FIFO (first-in, first-out) method.

Depreciation and Amortization

Equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred; renewals and betterments which significantly extend the useful lives of existing equipment are capitalized. Significant leasehold improvements are capitalized and amortized over the term of the lease; equipment is depreciated over three to ten years.

Prepaid Expenses

Certain expenses, primarily insurance and income taxes, have been prepaid and will be used within one year.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes net sales revenue upon the shipment of product to customers.

Research and Development and Patents

Research and development expenditures are charged to operations as incurred. The costs of obtaining patents, primarily legal fees, are capitalized and once obtained, amortized over the life of the respective patent on the straight-line method.

The Company is developing certain Gelpaks intended for use in temperature control. On September 2, 2014, the Company was granted a design patent entitled “Rollup GelPak for Test Tubes,” the Patent Number D712,559 related to the Company’s HemoCool™ Gel-Pak. This patent will expire on September 2, 2028. Another patent was granted on October 14, 2014 entitled “Method of Producing Eggshell Powder,” Patent Number 8,859,010. This patent will expire on May 28, 2024. Additionally $78,014 was moved from patents pending to amortizable patents during the quarter. Amortization expense for the six months ended October 31, 2014 was $1,618.

Patents and patents pending relate to products that have been developed by the Company.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes to Financial Statements

Income Per Common Share

Income per common share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. When dilutive, stock options are included as share equivalents using the treasury stock method in the calculation of diluted earnings per share. The Company has no outstanding options or other rights to acquire its unissued common shares.

Comprehensive Income

Components of comprehensive income include amounts that are included in the comprehensive income but are excluded from net income. During the quarter endings and six month periods ending October 31, 2014 and 2013, there were no differences between the Company's net income and comprehensive income.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due and deferred taxes related primarily to differences in the methods of accounting for patents, inventories, certain accrued expenses and bad debt expenses for financial and income tax reporting purposes. The deferred income taxes represent the future tax consequences of those differences, which will be taxable in the future.

The Company files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and with the state of Illinois. Various tax years remain open to examinations, generally for three years after filed, although there are currently no ongoing tax examinations. Management's policy is to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The FASB issues ASUs to amend the authoritative literature in Accounting Standards Certification (ASC). There have been a number of ASUs to date that amend the original text of ASCs. Those ASUs issued to date either (i) provide supplemental guidance, (ii) are technical corrections, (iii) are not applicable to the Company or (iv) are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company.

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASU 2014-09), which supersedes nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP. The core principle of ASU 2014-09 is to recognize revenues when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 defines a five step process to achieve this core principle and, in doing so, more judgment and estimates may be required within the revenue recognition process than are required under existing U.S. GAAP.

The standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods therein, using either of the following transition methods: (i) a full retrospective approach reflecting the application of the standard in each prior reporting period with the option to elect certain practical expedients, or (ii) a retrospective approach with the cumulative effect of initially adopting ASU 2014-09 recognized at the date of adoption (which includes additional footnote disclosures). We are currently evaluating the impact of our pending adoption of ASU 2014-09 on our consolidated financial statements and have not yet determined the method by which we will adopt the standard as of May 1, 2017.

As of October 31, 2014, $19,699 was due from F. K. Suzuki International, Inc. These balances result from an allocation of common expenses charged to FKSI prior to April 30, 2006 offset by advances received from time to time. No interest income is received or accrued by the Company. The financial condition of FKSI is such that it will unlikely be able to repay the Company during the next year without liquidating a portion of its assets, including a portion of its ownership in the Company. As a result, the receivable balance has been reclassified as a contra equity account since April 30, 2006.

A board member provided a variety of legal services to the Company in his capacity as a partner in a law firm. Fees for such legal services were approximately $22,785 and $18,046 for the six months ended October 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Note 6 - Major Customers

Shipments to one customer amounted to 30.93% of sales during the first six months of Fiscal 2015 compared to 33.62% during the comparative Fiscal 2014 period. As of October 31, 2014, there were outstanding accounts receivable from this customer of $65,373 compared to $76,783 at October 31, 2013. Shipments to another customer amounted to 32.56% of sales during the first six months of Fiscal 2015 and 29.19% of sales during the first six months of Fiscal 2014. As of October 31, 2014, there were outstanding accounts receivable from this customer of $36,940 compared to $43,755 at October 31, 2013.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Net Sales/Revenues

For the three month period ending October 31, 2014 ("2nd Quarter"), the net sales increased 4.2%, or $14,529, and increased 2.2%, or $14,735 during the six month period ending October 31, 2014, as compared to net sales for the comparative periods ending in 2013. This increase in sales is primarily the result of an increase in the sales of TempTrend and HemoTemp II Activators. As of October 31, 2014, the Company had $290 in back orders.

In addition to the above, the Company had $607 and $1,192 of other miscellaneous revenues primarily from interest income and leasing a portion of its storage space to a third party during the three and the six month periods ending October 31, 2014, respectively.

Costs and Expenses

General

The operating expenses of the Company during the 2nd Quarter increased overall by 5.06%, or $8,673 and increased by .05%, or $1,899 for the six month period ending October 31, 2014, as compared to the same periods ending in 2013. The increase was due to an increase in the Company's group health insurance plan premiums during the 2nd Quarter.

Cost of Sales

The overall cost of sales during the 2nd Quarter increased by $14,480 and increased by $7,089 during the six month period ending October 31, 2014 as compared to the same periods ending in 2013 as a result of an increase in unit sales of HemoTemp II Activator and higher group health insurance plan premiums. As a percentage of sales, the cost of sales were 31.42% during the 2nd Quarter and 28.55% for the comparative quarter ending in 2013; and 31.16% during the six month period ending October 31, 2014 compared to 30.78% in 2013. Included in the cost of sales is the medical device excise tax. It is not anticipated that the cost of sales as a percentage of sales will materially change in the near future.

Research and Development Expenses

Research and Development costs increased $1,150, or 3.39%, during the 2nd Quarter as compared to the same quarter in 2013. These costs decreased by $266, or .04%, during the six month period ending October 31, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013. This increase during the 2nd Quarter was primarily due to an increase in the Company's group health insurance plan premiums. The Company is continuing its investigation and development of certain products intended to improve and expand its current product line. The Company does not have sufficient information to determine the extent to which its resources will be required to complete the development of such products.

Marketing Expenses

Marketing expenses for the 2nd Quarter increased by $3,800, or 8.87%, as compared to the quarter ending October 31, 2013 and decreased by $402, or .42%, during the six month period ending October 31, 2014 compared to the six-month period ending October 31, 2013. The increase was primarily due to an increase in the Company's group health insurance plan premiums during the 2nd Quarter.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative costs increased by $3,723, or 3.94%, in the 2nd Quarter, and increased by $2,567, or 1.16%, during the six month period ending October 31, 2014, as compared to the same periods in 2013. This overall increase for the six months ending October 31, 2013 was due primarily to an increase in the cost of the Company's group health insurance plan. Except for unforeseen items and ordinary cost increases, it is unlikely general and administrative expenses will materially change during the remainder of Fiscal 2015.

Net Income

The Company realized a net income of $46,309 during the 2nd Quarter as compared to a net income of $50,524 for the comparative quarter in the prior year. The Company also realized a net income of $57,131 for the six month period ending October 31, 2014 as compared to a net income of $54,061 during the same period in 2013. The decrease in net income during the 2nd Quarter is a result of an increase in operating expenses, primarily employee benefits. The increase in net income during the six month ending October 31, 2014 was primarily due to an increase in sales of TempTrend^R and the HemoTemp^R II Activators.

Assets/Liabilities

General

Since April 30, 2014, the Company's assets have increased by $30,308 and liabilities have decreased by $26,823. The increase in assets, primarily cash and patents, is due to the overall profitability of the Company and investment in the development of potential products since April 30, 2014.

Related Party Transactions

The Company was owed $19,699 by F.K. Suzuki International, Inc. ("FKSI"), an affiliate, at October 31, 2014 and April 30, 2014. This account primarily represents common expenses which were previously charged by the Company to FKSI for reimbursement. No interest is received or accrued by the Company. Collectability of the amounts due from FKSI cannot be assured without the liquidation of all or a portion of its assets, including a portion of its common stock of the Company. As a result, the amount owed by FKSI to the Company is classified as a reduction of FKSI's capital in the Company.

A board member provides a variety of legal services to the Company in his capacity as a partner in a law firm. Fees for such legal services were approximately $22,785 and $18,046 for the six months ended October 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Current Assets/Liabilities Ratio

The ratio of current assets to current liabilities, 24.41 to 1, has increased compared to 15.69 to 1 at April 30, 2014. In order to maintain or improve the Company's asset/liabilities ratio, the Company's operations must remain profitable.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the six month period ending October 31, 2014, the Company experienced an increase in working capital of $42,390. This is primarily due to the Company's net income sustained during the six month period ending October 31, 2014.

The Company has attempted to conserve working capital whenever possible. To this end, the Company attempts to keep inventory at minimum levels. The Company believes that it will be able to maintain adequate inventory to supply its customers on a timely basis by careful planning and forecasting demand for its products. However, the Company is nevertheless required to carry a minimum amount of inventory to meet the delivery requirements of customers and thus, inventory represents a substantial portion of the Company's investment in current assets.

The Company presently grants payment terms to customers and dealers of 30 days. Although the Company experiences varying collection periods of its account receivable, the Company believes that uncollectable accounts receivable will not have a significant effect on future liquidity.

The cash provided by operating activities was $106,792 during the six month period ending October 31, 2014. $22,665 was used for patent expenses and equipment purchases during this same period. The Company does not anticipate any material expenditures for capital items to be utilized for the production or manufacture of products based on the Company's recently issued patent for the "Rollup GelPak for Test Tubes," Patent Number D712,559, or for its patent entitled "Method of Producing Eggshell Powder," Patent Number 8,859,010. Except for its operating working capital, limited equipment purchases and patent expenses, management is not aware of any other material capital requirements or material contingencies for which it must provide. There were no cash flows from financing activities during the six month period ending October 31, 2014.

As of October 31, 2014, the Company had $1,222,416 of current assets available. Of this amount, $13,334 was prepaid expenses, $118,765 was inventory, $141,662 was net trade receivables and $948,655 was cash. The Company's available cash and cash flow are considered adequate to fund the short-term capital needs of the Company. The Company does not have a working line of credit, and does not anticipate obtaining a working line of credit in the near future. Thus there is a risk additional financing may be necessary to fund long-term capital needs of the Company, although there is no such currently known long-term capital needs other than operations.

Effects of Inflation. With the exception of raw material and labor costs increasing with inflation, inflation has not had a material effect on the Company's revenues and income from continuing operations in the past three years. Inflation is not expected to have a material effect in the foreseeable future.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates. On December 12, 2001, the SEC issued FR-60 "Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies." FR-60 is an intermediate step to alert companies to the need for greater investor awareness of the sensitivity of financial statements to the methods, assumptions, and estimates underlying their preparation, including the judgments and uncertainties affecting the application of those policies and the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions.

The Company's significant accounting policies are disclosed in Note 2 to the Financial Statements for the 2nd Quarter. See "Financial Statements." Except as noted below, the impact on the Company's financial position or results of operation would not have been materially different had the Company reported under different conditions or used different assumptions. The policies which may have materially affected the financial position and results of operations of the Company if such information had been reported under different circumstances or assumptions are:

Use of Estimates. Preparation of financial statements and conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The financial condition of the Company and results of operations may differ from the estimates and assumptions made by management in preparation of the Financial Statements accompanying this report.

Allowance for Bad Debts. The Company periodically performs credit evaluations of its customers and generally does not require collateral to support amounts due from the sale of its products. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts based on its best estimate of accounts receivable.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report may contain statements which, to the extent they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Reform Act"). Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements for reasons including, but not limited to, changes to and developments in the legislative and regulatory environments effecting the Company's business, the impact of competitive products and services, changes in the medical and laboratory industries caused by various factors, risks inherent in marketing new products, as well as other factors as set forth in this report. Thus, such forward-looking statements should not be relied upon to indicate the actual results which might be obtained by the Company. No representation or warranty of any kind is given with respect to the accuracy of such forward-looking information. The forward-looking information has been prepared by the management of the Company and has not been reviewed or compiled by independent public accountants.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices, such as interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and commodity prices. The Company's primary exposure to market risk is interest rate risk associated with its short term money market investments. The Company does not have any financial instruments held for trading or other speculative purposes and does not invest in derivative financial instruments, interest rate swaps or other investments that alter interest rate exposure. The Company does not have any credit facilities with variable interest rates. The Company's operations are not exposed to financial risk that will have a material impact on its financial position and results of operation.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company has established and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) which are controls and other procedures of the Company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Accounting Officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Accounting Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Accounting Officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the Company's Fiscal Quarter ending October 31, 2014 that have materially affected or are likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
